BIBLE CLASS ENJOYS FINE MEETING HERE

Baptist Women's Meeting Well Attended on Feb. 14

On February 14 thirty-five members of the women's Bible class of the First Baptist church met in Fellowship hall at the church for their first monthly social. This was in the nature of a "get-acquainted" social, as the class is less than one month old, and, judging by the merriment expressed, it did not take very long for the members to become thoroughly acquainted with one another. To familiarize each other with their names, each lady was presented with a red heart on which was written her name. These were worn in a conspicuous place, several choosing to wear these hearts on their sleeves.

A roll call showed natives of southern, mid-western, far eastern and western states, and Canada, England and Holland. Representatives of these various places were called upon for an original poem or song; the delegate from Canada carrying off all honors.

Much interest was taken in a heart hunt, especially after it was discovered that the lady most interested in hunting hearts was really hiding them as she went along.

Contrary to the general belief that women cannot be brief, some telegrams that were marvels of brevity and wit were written, using letters given out promiscuously as the beginning of each word. Several humorous readings brought forth much applause.

Later in the evening refreshments were served and all joined in declaring it to be a most joyous occasion. It is planned to hold a similar social each month.

This class believes not only in attending socials, but also in attending the Bible school session each Sunday. Last Sunday there being 37 ladies present. The teacher, Mrs. Hurst, is a very capable leader who has had successful experience teaching women's Bible classes.

At present much interest is manifested in the contest between this class and the Men's Brotherhood class. Last Sunday the women's class was in the lead and, as there is only one Sunday left in the contest, it looks as though the men will have to entertain with that banquet. Any lady who is not already attending Bible school is given a cordial invitation to attend this class at the First Baptist church, corner Carson street and Martini.
